Director's Note

Where words fail, [Christmas] music speaks.

– Hans Christian Andersen

Every year, it seems that every musician has to release a Christmas Album. Some are soon forgotten but others may introduce a new classic. What makes a Christmas song great? Think of your childhood. The Christmas songs you loved back then are usually still played now. They are a perfect blend of music and musician. Others may sing the songs, but the originals are the ones we hear year after year.

According to YAHOO Music, we present the top 10 Christmas songs of all time:

1. White Christmas by Bing Crosby
2. The Christmas Song (Merry Christmas to You) by Nat King Cole
3. A Holly Jolly Christmas by Burl Ives
4. Jingle Bells by Jim Reeves
5. Here Comes Santa Claus by Gene Autry
6. Santa Claus Is Coming to Town by Perry Como
7. Baby It's Cold Outside by Margaret Whiting
8. I'll Be Home for Christmas by Bing Crosby
9. Little Drummer Boy by the Harry Simone Chorale
10. Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree by Brenda Lee

Remember. If you want Christmas music old, new or great, think of the Galion Public Library.
